Common Questions

What is a chapter?

A chapter is a smaller branch of Our Children Global.

What do chapters do?

A chapter will be responsible for bringing the mission of Our Children Global to your community.

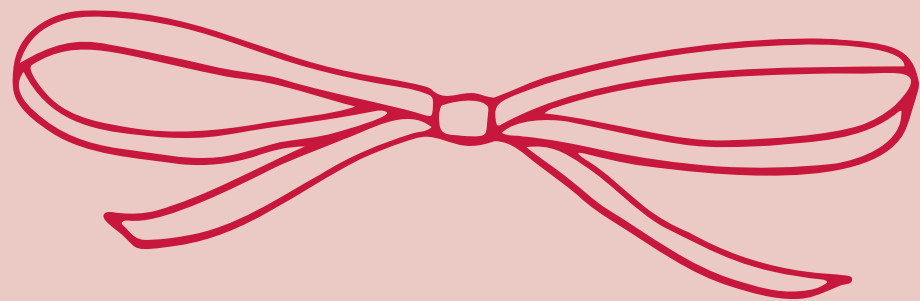

Can a chapter have their own social media accounts?

Yes! It is completely up to the team to decided whether they want to create separate social media accounts for their chapter.

What is the difference between the main OCG team and an OCG chapter?

The main OCG team will manage, recruit, and train potential ambassadors, tutors, volunteers, and chapter leaders, operating on an international scale through partnerships with various organizations and corporations. In contrast, an OCG chapter will focus solely on recruiting and managing officers and volunteers at the local or regional level.

EXPECTATIONS/ REQUIREMENTS

Each OCG chapter is responsible for keeping track of the following:

- Income and expenses
- The number and type of events/fundraisers hosted
- The number of volunteers recruited
- The number of children impacted

The president of each chapter is responsible for communicating with and updating the main OCG team on a monthly basis.

Benefits

- Presidents and officers of all chapters will be offered training sessions
- The best chapter president will be selected every six months and awarded a gift card or gift for outstanding effort
- Certificates and volunteer hours will be offered upon request for all officers
- Opportunities to connect with like-minded individuals from different countries
